March 2020, Restatement of Covenants and Restrictions for Rotonda Sands.

Article 8. Governmental Rules and Regulations. Section 5. Residential Leases.

Purpose for rental guidelines:

Every homeowner has a right to rent their home and with that privilege there are landlord and tenant laws that must be followed according to Federal Law and State Statutes. As an owner/landlord it will be up to you to become familiar with these laws. Rotonda Sands has developed guidelines to protect our community and residents from distress from landlords or renters who are not abiding by Federal, State, local laws, or Rotonda Sands guidelines.

These guidelines apply to all occupants.

DEFINITIONS:

Resident: A person who lives somewhere permanently or on a long-term basis.

Homeowner: A person who owns a home. Refer to Article 1. Definitions: I. in Restatement of Covenants and restrictions for Rotonda Sands.

Renter/Tenant: A person who has paid rent or has agreed to pay rent to live somewhere.

Interval ownership: Also called time-share ownership, in which a person shares ownership of property but is entitled to exclusive possession only for a particular time period each year. Rotonda Sands requires this time period to be (30) consecutive days with Owner Guidelines in force.

Sublease: A lease of a property by a tenant to a subtenant.

Owner Guidelines:

1. A lease/rental or interval ownership may not be subleased.

2. The minimum term of all residential rentals in the Subdivision shall be thirty (30) consecutive days (reference: March 2020, Restatement of Covenants and Restrictions for Rotonda Sands. Article 8. Governmental Rules and Regulations, Section 5. Residential Leases.)
