Thank you!

She arrived on Fripp late Saturday night, carrying grief and looking for a place to breathe. Fripp Island had always been her happy place, and she hoped the beach would offer space to begin healing. The next morning, she walked toward the sunrise, expecting only the quiet beauty of the ocean.

As she approached the Beach Club, Pastor Todd and the worship team were preparing for Sunday's service. She asked what they were doing, and Todd told her about Church on the Beach. In that brief conversation, she shared the loss that had brought her there.

Immediately, Todd paused the preparations. He and the worship team gathered around her and prayed for comfort, peace, and the first steps of healing.

As we close our ninth summer of Church on the Beach, we give thanks not only for the strong attendance and every baptism, but also for the quiet moments of ministry that happen before the first song is sung. People come to the oceanfront carrying joy, questions, weariness, and brokenness, and it is our blessing to welcome each one with the love of Christ.

Large crowds worshipped throughout the summer. This family celebrated the baptism of their matriarch...one of many Baptisms this summer.

St. Helena's Church at Fripp Island gathers for worship every Sunday at 9am in front of the Beach Club. As the weather cools, services move indoors to the All Faiths Chapel. Whether you arrive full of gratitude, in need of peace, or simply curious, we would love to welcome you. For more information, please contact Rev. Todd Simonis at tsimonis@sthelenas1712.org

Volunteer Opportunity: Important Roles Available

We are looking for dedicated volunteers to help support our Programs team. This important role helps plan, coordinate, and deliver meaningful activities, events, and services that strengthen our organization and benefit the people we serve.

Programs volunteers may assist with organizing program schedules, communicating with participants, preparing materials, supporting events, tracking follow-up needs, and helping ensure each program runs smoothly from start to finish.

This is a great opportunity for someone who is organized, dependable, collaborative, and passionate about making a positive impact. If you are willing to share your time and talents in this important role, we would be grateful to hear from you.

Membership Volunteers

Membership volunteers help welcome new members, support current members, maintain communication, assist with renewals, and encourage stronger participation in our organization. This role is ideal for someone who enjoys connecting with people and helping them feel informed, included, and appreciated.

Bluebird Box Volunteers

Bluebird Box volunteers help support the care, monitoring, and upkeep of bluebird boxes. Responsibilities may include checking boxes on an appropriate schedule, recording observations, reporting maintenance needs, and helping protect a safe nesting habitat for bluebirds.

Committee Members

Committee members provide guidance, ideas, and hands-on support for key projects and ongoing needs. Volunteers in these roles may help with planning, decision-making, outreach, coordination, and follow-through. Serving on a committee is a meaningful way to contribute skills, share perspectives, and help move important work forward.

I would also like to remind everyone about our habitat preservation efforts. Do you own a lot on Fripp Island that you would like to keep in its natural state? Is there a nearby lot you would like to see preserved as it is? Consider purchasing the lot and donating it to the Fripp Island Audubon Club. Your donation may help relieve you of tax and assessment fees while ensuring the land remains natural.

For questions, please contact Mike Norman, Fripp Island Audubon President, at mikeanorman@gmail.com.

Fripp Island Friends of Music: Our Exciting 42nd Season

By Margit Resch

If you are a member of the Fripp Island Friends of Music, you already know: the five concerts, scheduled from October 2026 through April 2027 on Sundays at 5:00 pm, will be fabulous. They always are. I have never been to a concert on Fripp when the audience did not stand up at the end to applaud, applaud, applaud, until the musicians sat back down for an encore. Or two. Then everyone goes... no, not home, everybody goes to a reception with beverages (guess what kind) and delicious hors d'oeuvres from Harold's Chef Services—all included in the ticket price—and with a chance to chat with the musicians and your fellow Friends of Music.

If you are not a member of the FIFOM, you should consider becoming one. The Basic Membership is $100. You heard right: 100 dollars — for a great concert and a catered reception held in the Chapel and the Community Centre. One ticket for each of the five concerts is $30. If you become a member, you save... do the math... $50!

Tickets, available at the door, can be reserved in advance by texting or calling Rebecca Climer at (615) 594-1552. Please leave your name and a call back number. Adults $30, students and children free, thanks to a grant from the Peg Gorham Memorial Fund. You receive a free gate pass at the Security Gate after 4:00 pm. Go to frippfriendsofmusic.com for more information.

Our first concert is on October 11. Nicole Henry has established herself among the jazz world's most acclaimed performers. Her versatile and emotionally driven vocal performances have captivated audiences in some twenty countries. The latest of her four CDs, "Time to Love Again," was on the TOP-10 list for twenty weeks. Nicole has also countless awards and prizes to her name. If not starring as a guest in jazz orchestras and big bands, she tours with her quartet, entertaining through peerless interpretations of a repertoire ranging from the American Songbook to classic and contemporary jazz, popular standards, blues, and originals.

On November 8, Alexandre Dossin will earn our applause with his performance of a surprising array of piano pieces. Originally from Brazil, where he started playing piano in public at seven years old, Dossin is a graduate of the Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatory, earned a doctorate from the University of Texas at Austin, and is now Professor of Piano Performance and Chair of Keyboard at the University of Oregon School of Music and Dance. Needless to say, Dossin keeps extremely active teaching, performing, recording and receiving prizes and awards all over the world. I don't know what he will play for us on Fripp, but I bet you it will be a little Liszt, Beethoven, Mozart, maybe Gershwin. What are you hoping for?

On February 7, Ella and The Bossa Beat will dazzle us with a unique mixture of modern bossa nova, i.e. the Brazilian jazz style of music, combined with soulful jazz, balancing reimagined repertoire with original compositions. The father-daughter duo is composed of vocalist, pianist, and composer Ella Borges and Grammy-nominated drummer and percussionist Magrus Borges. Ella was born in Miami and raised in Brazil. She sings in Portuguese, Spanish, English and French. Magrus, an intriguingly creative drummer, percussionist, composer and producer, hails from Brazil. Ella and her father have released three albums that have captured the attention of jazz lovers all over the world.

On March 14, Brian Ashley Jones and Melanie Jean, a duo based in Nashville, TN, specializing in vocal harmony, lead guitar and bass guitar, are going to take us on a trip through the world of music rooted in country and blues genres with their gorgeous original songs, featured in film and TV, and with classic country favorites. Brian, originally from upstate South Carolina, is a soulful singer, acclaimed guitarist, and versatile song-writer. Melanie Jean from New Mexico, is equally accomplished as bassist, flautist, singer and songwriter. Brian and Melanie have joined forces and perform all over the world at festivals, clubs, and music education programs.

On April 11, the Kenari Quartet is going to try and blow us off our seats with their classical and contemporary saxophones, a category of “Blasinstrumente,” as they are called in German, appropriately, because you blow into them. Their website summarizes the quartet’s accomplishments, applauds their “flat-out amazing,” “inspiring” performances and “stunning virtuosity” that transform the common perception of the saxophone. „The quartet aims to highlight the instrument’s remarkable versatility by presenting meticulously crafted repertoire from all periods of classical and contemporary music.” I was a little apprehensive: four saxophones? So I listened to the Kenari Quartet on the internet, and let me tell you: I am hooked. I can’t wait to hear them in real life. In fact, I can’t wait to hear any of this season’s concerts.

Did you know: FIFOM’s Music in the Schools Program arranges for all the artists to perform at a Beaufort County School on the morning after each Fripp Island concert? This is a special treat for the artist(s), the teachers and the students!

We are proud that our concert series is funded in part through a grant from the South Carolina Arts Commission, which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts. Fripp Island Friends of Music is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.

No one puts on a concert quite like Fripp Island Friends of Music. Come and see and hear for yourself. And tell a friend about our season line-up.

The Fripp Island Pickleball Association

Submitted by Jane Marquart

The Fripp Island Pickleball Association (FIPA) structured weekly play has been on summer hiatus with the exception of a 6-week ladder-style event.

Eighteen women braved the heat and participated the event where players moved up or down the ladder (court) depending on whether they won or lost. Somewhat casual, players could drop in and out as their schedule allowed. Everyone enjoyed the competition as well as the camaraderie

No one enjoyed the heat!!

Regular weekly games will restart on Monday, September 14th, 5-7pm. Different types of play will be designated each week to accommodate a variety of skills as well as social interaction. Competitive games may include payouts while social/mixed games will be more casual. For example, football season may include a “favorite sports team” night, or a Dink and Drink during Oktoberfest. The schedule is still in progress but is sure to provide something for everyone.

October 4th brings the 1st annual Sea Island Challenge. Fripp Island will face off with Dataw pickleballers in a multi-level, skill-based competition. Players will compete for bragging rights and a perpetual trophy designating the best pickleball team between here and Publix! At least for this round.

My money is on Fripp. Come by and root them on!

The FIPA annual meeting is tentatively scheduled for September 20th. If you'd like to join in the fun and meet some fellow picklers, contact Jane Marquart at marquart54@gmail.com. Just $25/year. All skill levels welcome.

Hope to see you on the courts!

FIWC in cooperation with the Pat Conroy Literary Center has given 20+ awards to older adult students and over $30,000 since 2017!

The Water is Wide Pat Conroy Scholarship Applications 2027 are Available!

This scholarship is offered in honor of world-renowned author and former Fripp Island resident, Pat Conroy. One of Pat's earliest books, The Water is Wide, captured his passion for education. As a teacher on Daufuskie Island, the children gathered in a one room schoolhouse, had secondhand books, and few learning materials. Pat believed in equality for everyone and was a strong advocate for education then and throughout his life. His advocacy led to termination as a teacher in Beaufort County, but a great writer was born.

Eligibility: Any Technical College of the Low Country (TCL) or University of South Carolina Beaufort (USCB) student who is

- 21 years or older and a United States Citizen and a resident of Beaufort County, SC
- seeking an associate degree or certification at Technical College of the Low Country (TCL) or a bachelor's degree from University of South Carolina (USCB)
- Applications are available on the TCL or USCB websites after October 1, 2026 (for further info contact: ftkamradt@gmail.com)

HALF-DAY PASTEL WORKSHOP WITH BETH TOCKEY WILLIAMS

Discover the endless possibilities of landscape painting with award-winning pastel artist Beth Tockey Williams! September 12th, 2026
10am-4pm

Join the Fripp Island Art Guild for a creative, hands-on half-day workshop led by award-winning and widely collected pastel artist Beth Tockey Williams.

Participants will explore how composition, color harmony, and texture can transform a single landscape into a variety of expressive interpretations. Beth will guide participants through techniques for layering, simplifying, and experimenting with pastel to create mood, movement, luminous color, and depth.

Whether you are new to pastel or an experienced artist looking to explore a fresh approach, this workshop offers an opportunity to learn, experiment, and create in a relaxed and encouraging setting.

All levels are welcome—just bring your curiosity and a sense of adventure!

Workshop Details

Class Size: Limited to 6 participants per class, with a maximum of 12 participants

Cost:

$170 — Fripp Island Art Guild Members

$185 — Non-Members

Workshop fee does not include supplies.

A supply list will be provided prior to the workshop. For those who need supplies, Beth will offer a $30 supply option, payable directly to Beth Williams.

Space is very limited, so early registration is encouraged!

COMMUNITY CENTRE

The “Center” of the Fripp Island Community!

Submitted by Rebecca Climer

When the All Faiths Chapel was established in 1980, followed by the addition of the Community Centre, the stated purpose was to “promote and support” these structures to “further the... spiritual and cultural growth of Fripp Island.” The “how” of completing this purpose was left up to the members (any property owner or full-time resident) and the interests they developed and supported.

Over the years, organizations and events have been created by FICC residents to enhance the experience of Fripp Islanders and the FICC has become a place to gather, to marry and mourn, and to celebrate living on this beautiful island.

Some are surprised to learn that the FICC and All Faiths Chapel is a private, independent 501(c)3 organization separate from the Fripp Island Property Owners or Fripp Island Resort (but maintaining a great relationship with both!) We rely solely on our members’ generous financial support and the events held at the Centre for funding. The organization is maintained and managed by a volunteer Board of Directors and many volunteers who give generously of their time and talent.

By the end of this calendar year, the FICC and Chapel will have hosted nearly 1100 events (an average of more than 90 events per month) and, conservatively, hosted an estimated 13,000 attendees at the various meetings and events held there. There are more than a dozen Island-based organizations that meet regularly at the Centre to exercise, play cards, enjoy art and music, worship, play mah jongg, learn, serve and much more. The Community Centre offers nine Community Dinners per year and, every other year, a Treasure Sale. The Centre is our voting location for local, state and national elections and the Fripp Island Property Owners Association utilizes the Centre for Town Halls and candidate forums.

The All Faiths Chapel, home to a weekly Chapel service and holiday events, also hosts weddings and memorials and the Centre maintains a beautiful Columbarium where the ashes of loved ones rest in a quiet, contemplative setting. All in all, the Centre and Chapel are at the heart of many Fripp Island traditions and memories.

With the amount of use of the facilities, maintenance and improvement are top of mind for the Board of Directors. Another surprising fact about the FICC is the amount of money needed just to “keep the doors open and the lights on...” We estimate that the minimum needed to keep the Centre open for the hundreds of activities each year is in excess of $130,000. Our largest expense is insurance which costs about $35,000 per year and increases year over year. Utilities run another $10,000 per year. In 2025, Building and Grounds maintenance cost over $45,000 and we expect to increase this year due to repairs needed to the buildings’ exteriors. We also have to plan for capital projects and funding our reserves.

The Board of Directors is endeavoring to create more opportunities for engagement with our membership. We are rebuilding our website for greater functionality and ease of use and will launch a Facebook page to keep everyone abreast of both our progress and our needs. We are also meeting frequently to assess the future financial needs of the Centre and, this Fall, will be announcing the goal for our Annual Fund, as well as other efforts to raise funds.

Our priority is to ensure that the Fripp Island Community Centre and All Faiths Chapel remain welcoming and enjoyable places for Fripp Islanders to gather, worship, play and learn. If this is important to you, as well, please consider joining a committee or volunteering for one of our many efforts.

We say it often, but never enough, that Fripp runs on volunteerism and generosity. We’re most thankful for that!

FALL FISHING LOOKING GOOD

By Captain Ralph Goodison

Cooler weather on the way and fishing is good. Some of the best time to view our beautiful island is on the way Fall, Great fishing around Fripp is also on the way.

INSHORE; Fishing has been slow and will improve with good catches of Redfish, Sheepshead, Trout and Shark.

NEARSHORE: Your best bet. Good catches of Redfish, Sheepshead, Black Drum and Spanish Mackerel. Fishing around the Tire Reef, 6HI, and the Drydock are your best bet.

DEEP WATER/ STREAM Have been slow but should pickup with Wahoo King, Mackerel

The marina is ready for the fall season. The ship store is well stocked and offers that great food and Fripps own gas station. Fripper is ready for spectacular cruising and also boat rentals and kayaks.

Enjoy Fripp Island, a very special place..Not Perfect But Darn Close.
